Heretic was longer than the earlier two novels in this series – Archangel Down and Noa’s Ark. At points there was a lighter – playful, even – tone. But the characters were outstanding, the world-building and the storyline both fresh, and challenging, and the action scenes as intense as needed.

The three books of the Archangel Project are a rollicking romp through a fictional planetary system complete with low life, artificial intelligence and good old humans trying to find a way to coexist even among their own. The weasel like, poisonous, "werfls" named Carl Sagan and Albert Einstein bring humor along with a sex 'bot named 6T9.

2.0 out of 5 stars Weak conclusion. Reviewed in Australia on 12 November 2017. This, the third and final book in the Archangel Project series is the weakest of them all. Compared to the previous book in the series, the cast and settings are both substantially reduced and the plotting has a feel of inevitability to it.

In the year 2432, humans think they are alone in the universe. They’re wrong. Commander Noa Sato plans a peaceful leave on her home planet Luddeccea ... but winds up interrogated and imprisoned for her involvement in the Archangel Project. A project she knows nothing about. Professor James Sinclair wakes in the snow, not remembering the past twenty four hours, or knowing why he is being pursued. The only thing he knows is that he has to find Commander Sato, a woman he’s never met. A military officer from the colonies and a civilian from Old Earth, they couldn’t have less in common. But they have to work together to save the lives of millions–and their own. Every step of the way they are haunted by the final words of a secret transmission: The archangel is down.

First contact didn’t go as planned... Time Gate 8, one of humanity’s portals between the stars, has been overrun by a mysterious alien intelligence, and the planet Luddeccea is now cut off. Haunted by those she left behind, Commander Noa Sato is on a desperate mission to save her homeworld. Navigating the ancient Ark, she seeks a hidden gate that will transport her ship to Earth and the Galactic Fleet. But the Luddeccean system harbors dangers, and so does her crew. The only crew member she completely trusts is James Sinclair, but he doesn’t trust himself. James isn’t the man he once was. He has a hunger that is never satd, kills without regrets, and is fitted with extraordinary augments he doesn’t remember getting. Can James control his augments, or will they control him? In a future where almost all humans are augmented, James’s answer and Noa’s mission will determine the fate of the human race ... and the enemy is already within the gates.

The Darkness will strike again ... The last time Carl, Volka, and 6T9 fought the Dark, 6T9 failed Volka. If he wants her and all the carbon based life forms that he loves to survive, he needs to change. Change for an android is as easy as flipping a switch, but dealing with the consequences is not so simple. To save Volka, he’ll have to give up part of himself that Volka adores. He’ll need to become something an innocent, peace loving sex 'bot was never designed to be, something he despises. To save Volka and the galaxy he’ll need to become ... Android General 1.

A standalone adventure in the Archangel Project universe. On an icy, barren world, a starship dreams of doom... Throughout the galaxy, the reclusive alien race known as The One are incapacitated by terror. On the planet Luddeccea, wolf-human hybrid Volka harbors a terrible secret...a secret that must explain her nightmares. Trapped on a luxurious asteroid, pleasure 'bot 6T9 struggles to find purpose–until he receives a message from an Unidentified Caller. The worlds of The One, Volka, and 6T9 are about to collide. The galaxy will be shaken to its core. The starship is waking.

Robert Heinlein's Hugo Award-winning all-time masterpiece, the brilliant novel that grew from a cult favorite to a bestseller to a science fiction classic. Raised by Martians on Mars, Valentine Michael Smith is a human who has never seen another member of his species. Sent to Earth, he is a stranger who must learn what it is to be a man. But his own beliefs and his powers far exceed the limits of humankind, and as he teaches them about grokking and water-sharing, he also inspires a transformation that will alter Earth's inhabitants forever...

OUTIN, book two of the best selling Inner Movement trilogy, takes off from the last thrilling page of OUTVIEW. This story of wonder, in which time and dimensions collide in an explosion of psychic phenomena, takes Nate to a kaleidoscopic land. Relentlessly pursued, he faces impossible choices that transcend life and death. Aided by more mystics, he struggles to find understanding on a frantic quest through extraordinary realms. If he can keep his friends alive, avoid Lightyear, and unravel crucial mysteries from the past . . . the Movement just might have a chance to change everything. A fast paced psychic conspiracy filled with more than paranormal mystery and supernatural phenomena. In OUTIN, Nate is pushed to question life’s great questions and philosophies in a search for the meaning of time itself. Robots are in. Humans are out. Can one teenager steal her way to a better future? Pen Davis just lost her internship to a robot. As supercomputers take over all the jobs in the world, the lonely teen doesn’t see a future. Desperate to escape the coming robo-pocalypse, she devises a plot to steal millions from her former boss. It’s payback for laying her off, and the only way Pen can see how to scrape together enough cash to survive. But her plan takes a crazy turn when she fumbles the hijacking of a self-driving truck and accidentally sets it free. Stuck with a semi who practically wants to be her little sister, Pen tries to make the best of it. She uses the semi to rescue quiet James, who is interested enough in her that he’s willing to join her crew, even though he’d prefer not to do anything actually illegal. When she convinces James and the truck to help her, the plan fails spectacularly and her mismatched team is torn apart. Will Pen claim the riches of her dreams, or will a unique friendship give her something money can’t buy? Semi/Human is an action-packed science fiction adventure. If you like quirky characters, hilarious road trips, and awesome high-tech heists, then you’ll love Erik Hanberg’s fast-paced caper.

Commander Noa Sato doesn't believe in aliens. She's wrong. Imprisoned on her home planet, accused of aiding an alien invasion, Noa witnesses the beginning of a genocide—however, the murderers are not aliens, but her own people. Launching a daring attempt to reach the Galactic Fleet, she makes an unlikely ally in stranded professor, James Sinclair. But James is not all that he seems. James is not the man he once was. He has technological augments that give him extraordinary abilities. His augments protect Noa and himself, but he has no memory of how he came to have them. Worse, the changes may be more than physical. Noa's mission and the answer to James's mystery will put them at the center of a confrontation of galactic proportions. A confrontation that challenges the boundaries between human and alien, man and machine. A confrontation that might spell the doom of the entire human race. This set includes: Archangel Down. Archangel Project Book 1 Noa's Ark. Archangel Project Book 2 Heretic. Archangel Project Book 3 Carl Sagan's Hunt for Intelligent Life in the Universe: A Novella
