Catholic Archdiocese of Adelaide - Daily Intercessions

"Prayers of the Faithful" are also known as "Bidding Prayers", "general intercessions" or "universal prayers" and are common in most liturgical Christian churches such as Catholic, Anglican and Methodist traditions. (A similar practice occurs in the Episcopal church. Here they are known as the "Prayers of the People").

These Intercessory Prayers make use of a leader who leads the congregation through a series of congregational responses, periods of silent reflection, and spontaneous silent prayer. She's designed this element using a call-and-response form that eliminates the need for any printed material or projected text.
