American moms spend more time taking care of kids today than they did in the 1960's. This is perhaps the most surprising of many bold but well-backed claims in economist Bryan Caplan's book Selfish Reasons to Have More Kids. "According to time diaries, modern parents spend an incredible amount of time taking care of their kids.

Selfish Reasons to Have More Kids: Why Being a Great...

"Selfish Reasons to Have Children" more or less makes the following argument: (1) Modern day parents make parenting costlier than it has to be (in terms of time, energy, money, and worry). (2) They don't need to do this because, as the research shows, the way you parent doesn't really influence the way your kids turn out as adults.
